

Anna Elizabeth Mischnick

June 27, 2007 - December 20, 2018

Anna Elizabeth Mischnick passed away unexpectedly on December 21, 2018, due to medical complications. After diagnosis and treatment for brain cancer in 2014, she was weeks away from being considered a cancer survivor. The limitations on her body due to cancer and its treatments did not prevent her from finding joy in any event, big or small.

Anna, of McFarland, WI, is survived by her parents, Matt and Sara; siblings, Kate and Ethan; her paternal and maternal grandparents; and a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A visitation will take place on Friday, January 4, from 4:00-7:00 p.m. at the Lutheran Church of the Living Christ, 110 N. Gammon Rd., Madison, WI. The funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, January 5, at the church, with Pastor Dan Kowert presiding, followed by a luncheon for anyone whose life was impacted by Anna and her family.

In lieu of flowers or gifts, please consider donating to the UW Kids Cancer Fund, Make-A-Wish Wisconsin, or a scholarship fund at Anna's therapy clinic to provide funds for those who need it. Please direct those donations to the Lutheran Church of the Living Christ, marked for Anna's CI Scholarship Fund.

“ Hey Anna, just thought that I'd, uh... kinda fill you in on how things are with me. I, uh, won a few awards from school. Oh, and uh, I'm a full on metal head now. Heh. Saw the new Batman movie... it was pretty good. I've, uh, been really active on discord. 16th birthday coming up! Learning to live without you has been... difficult, to say the least. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you... and all the things I never got to say. So, uh, yeah. That's pretty much the secret life of Dylan, at this point. Hope things have been good with the family... i love you. ❤️❤️❤️

“ “Who cares if one more light goes out, in the sky of a million stars? It flickers, flickers. Who cares when someone's time runs out, if a moment is all we are? We're quicker, quicker. Who cares if one more light goes out? Well, I do.”- Linkin Park, One More Light. we love you, Anna.

“ I was in Anna's Class in first grade and she was always funny and kind. My memory was of when we did our swimming unit and we walked to the high school pool, she would always walk with me and we would play little games as we traveled with our class, our school will never be the same without her. We all miss you Anna

“ Anna was a ray of sunshine at both the elementary and Waubesa Intermediate School in McFarland. She always had a smile for everyone she met. Her kindness to every child showed her kind and gentle spirit and brought out the best in those she interacted with. I admired her fierce determination and wit. Anna, thank you for the time we shared with you!

“ I first met Anna when she, her mom and sister came to our home in Cadott to be involved with maple sap collecting, boiling and syrup tasting. Most children liked the tasting syrup over ice cream part, but Anne went beyond that experience and began telling a story using the shadow her fingers made on the back of the folding chair as a stage. Although I do not recall the story, I recall how she involved my fingers in the story line. Until Mom called her in for a nap, I think I could have played the finger story much longer. I recall Anna when I play. It brings a smile to my face and my heart. Thank you, Anna for the gift of play. Always in my heart and my prayers.
