“ I had the privilege to meet Anna as a customer, a little over 20 years ago. A beautiful heart and soul, always sensible in business, and sensitive to her customers; for she truly treated all of us like a relation when you came into her family pizzeria. I will miss her upbeat nature, her positive conversation, and my prayers are with the surviving members of those she left behind. Sincere love and gratitude for feeding us all so well. Ciao... but only for now, Erik Weinke

“ Sending our prayers and condolences to the Kohler family. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends. She was a wonderful mother in law to my brother Chris. Always a big hug and smile when my family joined the Kohlers for different family gatherings like Christmas Eve and my nephew's Nolan and Jonah's birthdays. Need more people like her in this world.
