“ I met Cherokee when I was hitting open mics in downtown Madison as a standup comedian. She had been so hopeful when pregnant.

We had slices together at Ian's. I enjoyed our conversation. I looked forward to seeing her.

It saddens me Cherokee is no longer earthly here. I just found out today.

May her children grow up well in this world and know that they came from an incredibly sweet soul.

Love always,

MOMic

“ I went to school with Cherokee and periodically saw her in downtown Madison. It didn't seem like she ever had it easy in life, but was always very kind and warm hearted.

“ Cherokee asked for jackets and paw cream for dogs and cats when she lived in the tiny house. She was so kind with animals. She was also very bright. I will feel sad not hearing from her again.
