

Daniel Conover

January 13, 1963 - September 13, 2024

Daniel D Conover, 61 passed away on September 13, 2024, after a courageous battle against his illness.

Dan was born in Hudson, Wisconsin on January 13, 1963 and attended Hudson High School where his favorite class was small engine repair. After high school he continued to hone his automotive and body mechanic skills. He later made his home in Ridgeland, Wisconsin where he was a trusted mechanic, great friend and good neighbor to all. He spent most of his days painting and repairing cars, trucks and tractors. Dan proudly rode his 4-wheeler that he affectionately called "Mustang Sally", mustang logo and all. He loved football and was an avid Green Bay Packer fan.

He is survived by his son Mark Conover and daughter Autumn (Dustin) Radke, grandchildren Ronald Riniker, Morgan Marty, Troy Lawrence, Holden U'Ren, Ember Geisthardt, mother Jane Conover-Kelliher, brothers Garrett (Debbie) Conover and George Conover, sister Laura (Charles) Meyer, aunts and many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his father Richard Conover Sr., brother Richard Conover Jr. and sister-in-law Tracy Conover.

A private burial service is being planned at St. Patrick's Cemetery in Hudson.

Tribute Wall

KS

“ Karen Solimar planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Daniel Conover.

Karen Solimar - September 25, 2024 at 05:24 PM

LM

“ One of my favorite memories, The two of us would go for a mini bike Ride to our Favorite friends across the black bridge , We we're about 12 and 13 and he would always say are you holding on. So Every Christmas I would say I'm holding Our photo of us sitting on Santa's lap together Sister and brother forever💙💜👏 Rest and I will sing for You🕊

laura meyer - September 24, 2024 at 02:02 PM