

Elizabeth Ann Armstrong

July 12, 1936 - September 22, 2024

Beloit – Elizabeth Ann Armstrong, age 88, passed away peacefully at Beloit Memorial Hospital on September 22, 2024, with her son Rusty looking down on her. Liz was born in Whitewater, WI on July 12, 1936 to Chester and Inace Hunt.

Liz loved to knit slippers and Afghans. She enjoyed going out dancing with her friends and family. Liz was a very loving mother, caring for her children and grandchildren with all of her heart. For the last 60 years, every Friday Liz would get her hair done. Liz was known for her electric smile, brightening every room that she walked into. She also enjoyed gardening and putting flower sprays together. Liz had a fond love for the outdoors and everything that came with it.

Liz is survived by her two daughters; Judy Riley and Kathy (Michael) Anderson, granddaughter; Judy Haynes, 5 great grandchildren; Alyssia, Dylan, Inace, Arionna, and Phanessa, 2 brothers; Lowell and Henry Hunt, 1 sister; Judy (Gary) Rasmussen, along with many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Liz is preceded in death by her parents; son; Russell “Rusty” Armstrong Jr., son-in-law Carl Riley, and brother; Edward Hunt.

No services will be held by Liz’s request.

Liz has now gone home to be with her mom, dad, and son.

Rosman Funeral Home is assisting the family. www.Rosmanfuneralhome.com 608-364-4477.

Tribute Wall

ST

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have thought of Rusty quite often since the summer he left, and thinking of him made me think of your family. I have kept you in my prayers, I hope thinkin of your Mother and Rusty together again brings you some comfort.

Sue Rydberg Tracy

Susan Tracy - September 24, 2024 at 11:19 PM

JB

“ Elizabeth was a very beautiful lady. I consider her as my second mother for over 40 years. She had the best heart of gold. I will miss her. Her two daughters are my sisters. God Bless the family. R. I. P. Mama Liz.

Jodi Beckington - September 24, 2024 at 06:35 PM