“ Liz always seemed to be smiling and was great at seeing the good and God in people. Rev. Doug Dowling

“ Liz did not have a passive bone in her body. What she loved she pursued with delight...her collections, her standards for housekeeping and attacking every wrinkle...the games she loved... the outdoors, esp water. One of my first memories of her is her picking me up in her blue convertible and going to sit together in a creekbed by Karis house I think....Her enjoying it immensely and me pretending to do so:) Kim and I will miss her greatly and all the fun we had playing games together!! We know we will see her again when its our time.
