

Eugene Relerford

January 25, 1952 - August 7, 2019

Eugene (E.U., Brother D) Relerford, of Beloit Wisconsin, departed this life, Wednesday, August 7, 2019, at U.W. Madison Hospital Surrounded by his family.

He was born on January 25, 1952, in Hot Spring, Arkansas to proud parents, James and Ruthie (Frazier) Relerford. He graduated from Beloit Catholic High School.

Eugene married Linda Givhan on April 25, 1971; to this union, one daughter was born Sondra. Some years later beyond their separation. Eugene met his long life partner Patricia Hodges. Through their uniting they raised five children: Shauna, Sheric, Shelton, Shaloan, and Meaghan.

Eugene a lifelong Beloit resident was an entrepreneur that loved his family and community. His mission in life was to bring about knowledge and change while providing entertainment to all. He opened the Starship night club one of the first African American owned in Beloit, Wisconsin in the 1980's. His vision did not stop there.

Eugene was the first African American to found and publish a weekly newspaper. Eugene was the founder, owner, and publisher of The Chronicle weekly newspaper. A publication serving Beloit, and Janesville, WI and Rockford, IL. He started the Stateline area's only "Blue Chip" community newspaper in 1981; with the motto "Journalistic Excellence, Service, Integrity and Objectivity Always." The Chronicle offers articles on general items and political developments of interest in Wisconsin minorities, and places emphasis on African American families in the community. He loved photography, being a part of community events and giving back. Eugene was always present at events in the community making sure events received exposure and leaders were acknowledged for their contributions. Eugene was a historian, role model, and all around "good" guy. If he wasn't at a community event Eugene loved spending time with his grandkids. He was truly loved by all.

Eugene leaves to cherish many memories; his son, Shelton Hodges of Beloit, WI; three daughters, Sondra Dionne (Michael) Verser of Orlando, Florida; Shauna M.(Daryl) Hodges, of Kenosha, WI; Shaloan L. (Willie) Hamilton of Antioch, IL; and nine grandchildren. One brother Earnie Relerford of Baltimore, MD; and five sisters, Doris Pleasant and Barbara Cross of Beloit, WI; Jackie Butts and Alice Mosely of Milwaukee, WI; and Bernita (Roy) Boton of Arlington, TX and a host of nieces, nephews and close friends. To know Eugene was to love him.

He is preceded in death by his parents, James and Ruthie Relerford, two uncles, Willie James Frazier sr. and Billy Joe Frazier, one Aunt, Fay Sylvia Frazier, and brother, James Eduard Relerford.

Memorial Service will be held on Monday, August 19, 2019, at Beloit Life Church, 2170 Murphy Woods Drive in Beloit, Wisconsin. Visitation will take place from 9am-11am, followed by funeral service at 11am. Pastor Sherrick Anderson will be officiating.

Committal in East lawn Cemetery in Beloit will follow the service. Repast at The Rotary Center, 1160 S. Riverside Drive in Beloit.

“ *I've Known Eugene since High School. I'll always remember him as a fun loving, down to earth, razor sharp personality. Always ready for a deep often insightful discussion, but at the same time he could feed you just enough baloney to show the humorous side of life.
He maintained a network of contacts across all of Southern Wisconsin that kept him aware of important and relevant topics featured in his marvelous creation the Beloit Chronicle. We both Shared Arkansas roots as his Dad James and his uncle Aaron both came from my parents homestate. He was a real asset to his huge Community. My heart goes out to his family. If I can be of any assistance at all please feel free to contact me.*
