

Frank Beal

March 13, 1953 - August 15, 2024

We want to honor and remember the life of Frank Beal, born on March 13th, 1953, to Frank and Roberta Beal in San Luis Obispo, California. As the eldest of four children, Frank was a guiding light for his siblings and a source of joy and inspiration for all who knew him.

Frank's passion for music was infectious, and he delighted in sharing his love of jazz, particularly when he played the saxophone. Whether tinkering with cars or electronics, or strumming his guitar, Frank's enthusiasm for life's simple pleasures was evident in everything he did. His love for animals and his joy in the company of friends and family were hallmarks of his warm and generous spirit.

Today, we take comfort in knowing that Frank has earned his heavenly wings and can finally rest. Though words cannot express how deeply we will miss him, we are comforted by the thought that he and our other loved ones will be watching over us. This isn't goodbye; it's until we meet again.

Frank is reunited in heaven with his beloved parents, Frank and Roberta, and his brother, Tracy. He leaves behind his devoted significant other, Lana Heathershaw; his stepson, Toby Heathershaw, and his partner, Carrie Widmer; his grandchildren, Justin, Katelyn, and Liam Heathershaw; his nieces, Tia Shipp and Katharine Pallotti; his nephews, Larry Beal and Angelo

Talerico; and his great-nieces and great-nephews, Serenity Peetz, Zoe Shipp, Logan Peetz, Darren Moffett, and Keigan Peetz.

Frank's legacy lives on in each of us, in the music he loved, and in the memories we cherish. We celebrate his life today and find solace in the knowledge that his spirit will continue to inspire us all.
