“ To Jennie's Family,

Jennie will always be remembered as being a good friend and neighbor to my mom, Marge. We could always count on Jennie's eyes and ears to keep a watch out for mom when we could not be there with her. I am touched that these two did not know each other until very late in life, and yet formed such a close bond. Jennie was there to let us in the building (mom couldn't hear the doorbell), she was there to assist me when Mom needed to be hospitalized, and Jennie brought our large family a noon spaghetti dinner when we were clearing out Mom's apartment. She always greeted us with a smile and had such a kind and gentle way. What a sweet lady!

I am so sorry for your loss, but so appreciate that she became such a close friend and helper to Mom. Jennie loved her family so dearly. May you be comforted with your memories of your kind mother/grandma.

“ Dear Kelly, Brandi, Lexi, Naoni, Junior, and family,

Years ago, my mom, Marge Pavelich, and Jennie were across-the-hall neighbors on the third floor of the Village on Olympian Hill.

We four kids each lived a distance away, three out-of-state, so as Mom got older and more needy, Jennie was her first responder for her lifeline, and had a key to Marge's apartment. Jennie took this responsibility very seriously! She checked up on Marge quite often, whether Mom pushed her lifeline button or not! Marge was severely hearing impaired, and could not hear her doorbell, which made Jennie's unexpected "check-ins" pretty funny at times.

The two women became dear friends, sharing slices of homemade lasagna, pie, whatever. Marge loved it when Jennie was babysitting the great-grands. Marge gave the kids rides on her walker. Down the hall they would go! Always made me nervous, but Marge and the kids had a ball.

I am sorry for Jennie's unexpected passing. May you always have great stories to share with each other and the next generations.

*Love,
Marianne (Pavelich) Jensen*
