

Henry W. Ruthe Jr.

October 4, 1939 - July 31, 2021

Henry (Butch) W. Ruthe Jr. lived a good long life married to the love of his life, Sandra (Ven Rooy) for 62 years. Butch and Sandy were blessed with 5 children; Scott (Brigette) Ruthe, Christy (John) Risch, Dawn Ruthe, Henry (Jan) Ruthe III and Steven Ruthe.

Butch and Sandy lived in several places after they married and then in 1965 Butch built the family home in Newark, WI where they have lived until his death July 31, 2021.

Butch worked at Rockford Products Corporation in Rockford, IL for 42 years retiring in 2001. He started out as a Tool Room Machinist, Tool Room Supervisor and then Electrician/Machine Maintenance.

Butch was known for freely giving his love, patience, time, abilities and knowledge to whoever came into his life. He loved to learn about everything and took and training, workshop and class he could. One of the first training courses he took and passes was to be a private detective.

Butch's garage was his man cave. The walls were covered with tools and parts, meticulously organized, knowing where everything was. He would go out and "putz", taking apart any and everything people would bring him to fix. Usually we would get it working often with a part or 2 leftover.

His joy in life was his family seeing it expand and grow to the 4th generation. He took them camping, fishing, hiking and sitting by bonfires. Camping even in the winter with snow on the ground.

A memorial Service will be Saturday, August 7th at 11AM at Family Worship Center, 1021 Cranston Road, Beloit, WI with Rev. JoAnn Smith officiating.
