

James Lewis Urbin

February 29, 1948 - September 16, 2018

James Lewis Urbin was born in Sedwick County, Kansas on February 29, 1948 and died on September 16, 2018.

James married Marianne Eddy on October 31, 1970 and graduated from Beloit Memorial High School.

He worked at Hanson Pipe (formerly Price Brothers, Interpace Corp, & Several other names over the years) in South Beloit, IL as a welder, forklift driver, and many other job titles for 50+ years until he retired in 2013.

Enjoyed hunting, fishing, and nature in general. James loved all kinds of sports, football, baseball, basketball, NASCAR. Packers, Brewers, Bucks, Badgers. Pretty much if it was any kind of sport he would watch it!

He is survived by his wife, Marianne Urbin; his daughter, Jeanna Urbin; two grandsons, Kirt Hoffman-Urbin and Kody Urbin; a granddaughter, Bobbie Jo Padgett; three brothers, Richard Urbin, Wayne Urbin, and Tony Urbin; a sister, Phyllis Scott and four Great Grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his Parents, Rose Urbin, James (Jack) Urbin and his, step-mother, Doreen Urbin.

Per James wishes, he will be cremated with assistance provided by Rosman Funeral Home and Cremation Services. There will be an informal celebration of life that will take place at a later date. Please watch for updates on the Rosman Funeral Home website.

Tribute Wall

 Kathy
Scott

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Kathy Scott - September 30, 2018 at 09:59 PM

 Kirt
Urbin

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Kirt Urbin - September 29, 2018 at 07:49 PM

 Jeanna
Urbin

“ Jeanna Urbin lit a candle in memory of James Lewis Urbin

Jeanna Urbin - September 29, 2018 at 12:06 PM

WS

“ He was one of the best Uncles you could ask for. Love and miss you. Wendy wendy soergel - September 29, 2018 at 08:29 AM

 John
Eddy

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

John Eddy - September 28, 2018 at 05:50 PM