“ *My Beautiful Sister
You have been like my mother my whole life
When I was just a baby you took me in your arms and said mine.
And have held me up all my life your loving memories will always be deep in my heart.
Playing Canasta on line with our other sisters Nancy and Jackie our sister trips and our visits were all so grand. You will be missed by so many but the memories you shared with each and everyone will never be forgotten
I love you with all my heart Sis and miss you so much already
God bless you and be free now and we will meet someday in that home of our lord
Love you sis*
