Celebrating the Life of Katrina Broomfield

Katrina was born in Chicago IL on February 15, 1982, to her parents, Mary Alice Broomfield and Abe Booth. She was a lively and soulful person. She always had everyone's best interest at heart. Often giving of herself and time to others who were in need. Katrina was a beautiful person inside and out. As she grew into adulthood, she decided to add another title to her role. Not only was she a daughter, sister, cousin, and aunt. In 2005 she became a mother, giving birth to twin boys. As the years went on, she gave birth three more times, giving birth to her only daughter and two more sons.

The love she had for her children was undeniable. She would always attend family functions and even host a few in her home. She embraced her family every chance she got. She gave of herself even when there was nothing left to give. She was truly a remarkable woman. Katrina succumbed to her illness on November 10, 2023. She leaves behind five children Jaylen Broomfield, Jayden Broomfield, Janee Broomfield, Javaris Broomfield, and Jamareha Baker. She also leaves behind seven siblings, Adrienne Broomfield (preceded her in death), Antionette Coutee, Kenneth Broomfield, Lamont Broomfield, Elisa Pride, Corey Hackler, and Samethia Broomfield. Her mother Mary Alice Broomfield (preceded her death) and Father Abe Booth and a host of friends.

Cremation rites will be accorded. No services are planned at this time.

The Broken Chain: We little knew that morning that god was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same . It broke our hearts to lose you ,you did not go alone ; for part of us went with you ,the day god called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you ,you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

In Loving Memory, I Miss You Always Sister: My heart has been left broken since the day you had to go and the memories, I treasure dearly Are in the tears that still flow. You're in my thoughts every day and that's how it will always be for you may be up in heaven now but you'll always be with me If only I could have the chance to see your face once more or to hear your voice one final time just like it was before The day that heaven calls for me will be a relief from all this pain I'll run to you with open arms and we will meet again .
