

Lillian Georgia Warfield

March 16, 1920 - November 15, 2021

Beloit – Lillian Georgia Warfield, age 101, passed away on November 15, 2021 while at her home with her girls by her side.

Lillian was born on March 16, 1920 in Beloit, WI the daughter of Arthur and Ima (Laugerud)Anderson. She married Ira William Warfield in Illinois on August 30, 1941. He preceded her in death on December 6, 1982.

Lillian had fun with her many hobbies including bowling, caning, golfing, antiques, furniture refinishing, knitting and crocheting. Lillian enjoyed many years of traveling with Ira, and later, attending the Moose Lodge and dining with her friends. Most of all, Lillian adored her daughters, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchild, and loved spending time with them.

Lillian is survived by her two daughters, Lynn Jo Ackerman and Teri Sue Bloedel; 9 grandchildren, Jason (Heather) Ackerman, Melissa Ackerman (Anthony Westby), Nicole Ackerman, Jessica Ackerman, Kimberly Reynolds, Michael (Emily) Bloedel, Matthew Bloedel, Jeffrey Bloedel (Lori Thorson) and Amanda (Timothy) Drinkwater; 16 great grandchildren; 1 great great grandchild and many nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Lillian was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Ira in 1982 and two sisters, Evelyn Pedersen and Lorraine Pointer.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be directed to the family in Lillian's memory.

The family would also like to thank the SSM Health Hospice team and Dr. Cheryl Miller and Dr. Leo for their support and care of Lillian.

A celebration of life will be held at the Rosman Funeral Home, 1125 E. Cranston Road in Beloit WI on Saturday, December 4, 2021 from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM.

“ My mother, Edith Kelsey, traveled far and wide with Lil, and she was in her 80's when she had to give it up. Edith joked that Lil was the "brat", as she wanted the window all the time on the bus. I spoke with Lil later after Edith died at age 89, and Lil said she didn't travel any more because she lost her traveling partner. I believe they bowled in the same league, perhaps on the same team. My condolences to her family.
