“ I loved Mary...I remember when the kids were little, she had a hanging basket with wax fruit in her dining room. Terry asked me if he could have an apple. I told him they were made of wax, and weren't edible. From that day Terry and Annette called her grandma wax apples. I know she's not in pain any more, and I take comfort in that. With all my love to you all, Kathi Poff

“ Sorry to read of Mary's passing. I worked with your Mom at K Mart. Your Mom was one of the sweetest ladies I have known. Through out the years we would run into each other and she always gave me a big hug. I am unable to at the service, but you will be in my thoughts and prayers. May the love of family and friends surround now and in the days ahead. Rest in peace Mary.

“ Your mom is no longer hurting and is in a better place. She’s back with Bernie and Terry, two loves of her life. Our mother’s were always close, now they are reunited. Feel at ease knowing she is in a better place, that she has finished what she was sent here to do. RIP Mary!!!!
