

Nancy Noble

January 24, 1932 - October 30, 2024

Perhaps the longest resident ever at Sylvan Crossing of Fitchburg, WI, Nancy died there on Wednesday, October 30th. She moved to Madison, WI with her mother in 1999 to be closer to family.

Nancy was born in Saginaw, Michigan on January 24, 1932, she was a beautiful little girl with bright blonde curls and equally bright blue eyes. She excelled at everything athletic which well pleased her father, coach Virgil J. Noble and mother Marjorie Mary Noble (Lewis). Nancy could climb anything in front of her and did so with gusto.

Nancy loved visiting with friends, the color green, her soap opera stars, Bingo, driving her car, volunteering and anything sweet. Beyond all, she loved everyone in her family. Her parents never wavered in their commitment to her welfare after her adolescent onset of mental health issues. Everyone who cared for her was always touched by Nancy's sweet nature, her good humor and hardy spirit.

Nancy is survived by her brother Bruce (Amy), beloved niece and nephews Marjorie (David Kirk), Bruce Jr (Patricia), John (Mary Ann Vinton) and Andrew (Emily).

It was Nancy's wish to remain in her adoptive State of Wisconsin. She will rest in Forest Hill Cemetery in Madison.
