

Ronald Copus

November 27, 1936 - October 26, 2018

Janesville – Ron Copus, age 81, died on October 26, 2018 while at his home.

Ron was born and raised on a farm near Richmond, Wisconsin.

After school in 1957, he married Marge and went to work at Sunstrand Aviation in Rockford, Illinois.

Later he moved back to Whitewater and worked maintenance for the college and police department, worked at a bowling alley and as a manager for apartment buildings.

Ron divorced and moved to Beloit and worked as a car detailer and was later employed at Amwood Homes.

He was formerly married to Margaret Beulah Elphick and Gertude G Wulf and is survived by a daughter Cynthia Copus of Evansville Wi and a son Charles R. Copus of Monona Wi; many Stepchildren and Grandchildren; Nieces and Nephews and extended family members who loved him very much.

The family would like to extend a special Thank you to Kim Prignot his house manager, Agrace and his Better half (life long friend) Jeri Heisz who gave him strength and courage the last 7 yrs with his struggles of neck and throat cancer. To Jeri's group of special girls Judy, Dottie and more who kept dad smiling.

As a hobby, he worked on small engines for extra income, and enjoyed hunting, fishing and wood working crafts.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be directed to the family.

Private burial services were held at Floral Lawn Gardens in South Beloit, Illinois.

Memorial services will be held at the Riverview Heights Apartments, 930 N. Washington Avenue in Janesville on Saturday, November 3, 2018 from 1 PM to 4 PM in the Commons Area.

“ You lived the good life and fought the good fight. You will be missed here on Earth but it would have been selfish to ask you to stay and suffer. You were a very smart and skilled man and a pleasure to call my Friend all these decades. May The Lord our God take you into his Kingdom and bring comfort to those left here to cherish your Memory. Until we meet again, I love you. Even though we were not related you will always be my Uncle Ronnie.
