“ I don't know if we can make to the service. Ron was a great example of a Christian. He was a faithful member of the Daystar men's group when we met at the Beloit Family restaurant. I always enjoyed his stories of his life and his sunny disposition despite the pain from his back condition. He will truly be missed by everyone who knew him.

“ My memories of Uncle Ronald are as a young child when we would visit he always had kind words, warm hugs and those eyes just full of spark :) I did not get to see him often but the love for him is timeless. Visiting with him is a highlight in my life and I look forward to visiting him again when the Lord calls me home. I know where you are Uncle Ronald and I also know that the sparkle in your eyes and that mischievous smile is there on your face and you are at peace :) love you ❤️
