“ I have had many good conversations with Sam over the years. Usually this was at Gina's house. He always wore a big sincere smile and gave a good hug. I will miss him. I will always remember him coming out to the deck to join in conversation and a korbel. Since he thought it was cold out there, he wrapped up in a blanket and stayed outside with us. You all have my deepest sympathy. I hope memories will bring smiles to your faces.

Sam, what a man! He was a pillar of strength and knowledge. My fondest memory was the tittle he put in our house next to Gina's on Cemetery road. He would come at 8 o'clock and work til three, hardly taking time for lunch or coffee. Down on his knees laying the floor in the foyer, made it look simple. God has a special angel in Sam. May all his memories comfort the family in his loss.
