“ Teresa was like a sister to me not just a sister in-law. She was always there for me when I needed to talk or just hang out. Her door was always open. She always put everyone else first, but wasn't shy about telling you how it was. My family probably would have starved if she wouldn't have taught me how to cook. They say that only the good die young and she was the best. Until we meet again my dear friend

“ Teresa was more like a sister to me than my real sister. She was always there for me when I needed someone to talk to, helped out whenever we needed anything and if it wasn't for her my family would have starved because I couldn't boil water till she taught me how to cook. There was never anyone with a bigger heart. But at the same time was not afraid to tell you how it was. They say only the good die young, and she was definitely one of the best. I will miss her until we meet again.
