Wade Alan Bellamy

October 12, 1965 – December 5, 2024

Wade Alan Bellamy, 59, of Waterloo, WI, passed away peacefully on December 5, 2024, under hospice care after a courageous battle with cancer of the colon, liver, and lungs. Wade's strength and resilience throughout his fight were a testament to his character and love for his family and friends.

Born on October 12, 1965, Wade lived in Waterloo, Wisconsin, a community he held close to his heart. He worked in manufacturing, where his hard work and dedication were deeply appreciated. Beyond his profession, Wade will be remembered for his love of socializing and the joy he brought to every gathering. Whether sharing a laugh or lending a listening ear, he always made those around him feel valued.

Wade is survived by his son, Tanner Bellamy, who was his pride and joy; his beloved mother, Ruth Bellamy; and his sisters, Wendy (Jeff) Hoffmann, Waunette (Tom) Hein, and Wanda Young. He also leaves behind cherished nieces, nephews, and a host of friends who will forever hold his memory dear.

Wade's kindness, humor, and unwavering spirit touched the lives of so many, and he will be deeply missed. His family extends their gratitude to those who supported Wade during his illness and invite all who knew him to join in celebrating the life he lived.

To honor Wade's life, a Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, January 25, 2025, at noon at Stubby's Bowl and MTs. Bar in Waterloo, WI. This gathering will be an opportunity to share stories, laughter, and memories in a way that reflects Wade's love for bringing people together.
